NORWICH DOLLAR DAY ON AUGUST 24

Morwich merchants are uniting next Saturday, August 24, in another Norwich Dollar Day, making another of those periodical events that the people of Elastern Connecticut have come to look forward to as their time of opportunity to make a dollar of arthest in special values offered by the merchants enlisted in the plan, which includes all the vide-awake and progressive storekeepers of the city, are predicting that buyer and seller alike will find this August Elar Dollar Day the best in the series. Since the experiment of holding Dollar Day on Saturday was tried, the choice of this day has proved so satisfactory that it has been decided to make Dollar Day a Saturday eventagain, which is a special accommodation for those living outside of the city, and gives them a fair chance to participate with city people in the starding advantages of the day. Since Saturday is a short work-day in so many of the surrounding towns whose people come here to do their buying, the holding of the week is a change the local plans that these patrons have shown they fully appreciate, and the Norwich merchants have been prompt to recognize the better opportunity that it gives out-of-town buyers to come to Norwich merchants have been the local plans that these patrons the local plans that these patrons have shown they fully appreciate, and the Norwich merchants have been prompt to recognize the better opportunities of Dollar Day available to the fullest extent to those who come from out-of-town. This is in an agreement as to the hours of opening their atores and not to open before them. Through such an agreement as to the hours of opening their atores and not to open before them. Through such an agreement to those who come from out-of-town. This is in an agreement as to the hours of opening the stores on Dollar Day. All the subscribers to the Dollar Day movement have agreed to make 8 octook in the collar part of the purpose of the Norwich well the consultation of the subscribers to the Dollar Day movement have agreed to make 8 octook in th with on Dollar Day.

Dollar Day is recognized throughout
Eastern Connecticut as the most effective retail accomplishment for the benefit of the consumer that occurs during the entire year. This is a time of all others when conditions make the practice of economy a study in all ranks and this condition the Dollar Day merchants are doing their best to meet in the bargains that they will offer. Every need for the home or for personal use will be met by the offerings of Norwich merchants. Norwich stores are noted far and near for the high quality of the goods that stock their shelves and counters in endless variety, and from all these stocks the Norwich merchants are docks the Norwich merchants are not embarrass the merchants by use making a study to provide real merbandsing opportunities for sound investment on the part of their customerchants will have to decline to receive, politely but firmly.

FOREIGN COMMERCE.

Trade of the United States with the neutral countries of Europe in the iscal year 1918 is the smallest in many years while that of 1917 was the largest in the history of our commerce.

This term, the "European Neutrals" includes of course the siz countries Denmark Norway. Sweden Netherlands, Spain and Swilzerland. A compilation by The National City Bank of New York shows that the exports to the six European Neutrals, above named, aggregated in the fiscal year 1918 about $125,000,000, arainst practically $400,000,000 in 1917, $320,000,000.

Exports to the Scandinavian countries alone increased from 40 million dellars in the fiscal year 1914 to practically $200,000,000 in 1915, and those to the entire neural group, above named, from $183,000,000 in 1914 to aggregate for the full fiscal year 1918 about 75 million dellars. 1917. With the entrance of the United States into the war in April 1917, conditions instantly changed, and the exports to the neutrals, which had been 325 million dollars in the ten months ending with April 1917, dropped to 180 millions in the ten months ending with April 1918, or just one-third that of the corresponding period of the preceding year, while for the single month of May 1918, the total to the six neutrals was but about $2,000,000 against about $32,000,000 in April of the preceding year. These reductions in our exports to the neutral countries of Europe occur chiefly in the class of material likely to be wanted by the Central Powers, and this of course would be foodstuffs and material available for the battle-field, or the production of such ma-terial. Of wheat, for example, the exports to the neutrals for the ten and they must become accustomed to months of the fiscal year 1916 were commands in the French language. over 28.000,000 bushels, in the same What will they do when they reach months of 1917, 22,000,000 and in the front? ANIMALS IN THE WAR.

Do you realize how many animals are busy in various ways in helping along a victory for the allies? The Prench are said to have 5,000 trained logs in the service, and the allies have 1,000,000 borses and many mules facing leath just as the men are. Besides these there are thousands of carrier pigeons and several thousand camels, all doing what they are bidden to do o help toward a victory.

Some of the sogs are trained in this country, but that is mostly for use in our home camps; these that will be sent to France will receive most of their training there. They must become accustomed to the thunder of guns; they must learn not to bark, no matter how excited they must be the company of the company o no matter how excited they may be in front of American Red Cross canteen somewhere in These canteens provide good American "eats" for soldiers on route and also have sleeping quarters, bath and disinfecting and laundry facilities for those who wish to stay overnight.
